

ARC Tips for NAIL Users

March 11, 2003

NAIL was replaced with ARC last fall. Data in ARC is the same as NAIL, yet some of the searching features have changed. Here are some tips and highlights for making the transition.

If you have any questions, please email the ARC mailbox at arc@nara.gov.

Goal	What you did in NAIL	What to do in ARC
Keyword Searches	Typed keyword(s) in the three separate boxes, and used the radio buttons to select the Boolean operator (AND, OR, NOT). An AND search retrieved all descriptions with the keyword(s) in each of the boxes.  A phrase search in one box found all words within 5 of each other.  There was no exact phrase search in NAIL.	Similar to web search engines, type all the words in the main keyword box and include Boolean operators, as needed. An AND search works the same way in ARC, but everything is entered in one box:  A phrase search works the same way in ARC, finding all words within 5 of each other.  In ARC, you can also do exact phrase searches. To search for an exact phrase, such as a hyphenated term or a known title use curly braces:  or  See the SEARCH TIPS and HELP link for more details The keyword search searches all fields and all words. If you don't find your hits, try variations of words
Title Keyword search	On the EXPERT SEARCH, typed keywords in the Title Keyword box.	In ARC, there is no longer a separate "Title" search box. However, you can still search for titles in the main keyword box. Enter words from the title or enter the title as an exact phrase in the keyword box.

	Enter Terms from TitleTitle HelpSteel Town	A title search without curly braces will find the words within 5 of the next: Steel Town An exact phrase search will find that exact title in the Title field or that exact phrase anywhere else in a description: {Steel Town} Note that stop words are ignored in both regular and exact phrase searches. See the online HELP for a list of stop words.
Identifier or Control Number search	Entered a known Record Group Number or Collection Identifier in one box, entered a Series Identifier in another box, and an Item Identifier in another box. Enter Description Level IdentifiersDescription Level Identifiers HelpRecord Group/Collection208SubseriesSubgroupFile UnitSeriesUNItem157Or entered the CONTROL NUMBER in one box.Enter Control NumberControl No. Help208-UN-157	In ARC, you can still filter searches by Record Group or Collection. However, if you don't know or don't remember the Record Group Number or Collection Identifier you can now search to make sure you are filtering on the correct Record Group or Collection. To filter by Record Group, press the RECORD GROUP LOOKUP button on the Advanced Screen. Enter either a number or a keyword to search for a Record Group. Record Group Number SearchSearch for Record Group Number(s) or keywords from the Record Group title:indian or 111 or army or foodGoClearBack to SearchSearch TipsPress Go.Select and paste the result(s) into the advanced search screen. The selected Record Group Number(s) will appear in the filter and when you run the Advanced Search it will find all descriptions that are part of the selected Record Group(s).The COLLECTION filter works the same way.ARC allows searching for multiple Record Groups or Collections.Note: We plan to add Record Group Number and Collection Identifier to the keyword index so that if you know the number or identifier you can type it directly in the main keyword box on both the Basic and Advanced Screen.In ARC, you can still search by known control numbers or description identifiers, such as former NAIL Control Numbers.Type the entire control number, which includes the unit code, in curly braces in either the keyword or description identifier box.

So if a known control number has a period, enter the entire string up to the period. Then press Go. In the results, scroll through to find that particular control number.
Digital Images search	On the Standard or Expert Search Screen, typed keywords and selected the ONLY DESCRIPTIONS LINKED TO DIGITAL COPIES filter. NAIL Expert Search Form<input type="button" value="Submit Search"/><input type="button" value="Display Results"/><input type="button" value="Clear Form"/><input type="button" value="Help"/><input type="button" value="Exit NAIL"/>Total Hits Retrieved: 0 Hits to Display: 1-150<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Only Descriptions Linked to Digital CopiesEnter Keywords <input type="button" value="Keyword Help"/>	On the Basic or Advanced Search screen, type keywords and select the DESCRIPTIONS FOR ARCHIVAL MATERIALS LINKED TO DIGITAL COPIES Filter box. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Descriptions of Archival Materials linked to digital copies This will automatically bring you the digital copies search results including thumbnail images.

	To retrieve the special thumbnail results format, you had to use the separate NAIL Digital Copies Search screen. 	If you don't select the digital copies filter, but the results have associated digital images, then the results will include a DIGITAL COPY AVAILABLE link.

NEW FEATURES

- DATE FILTERING

The filter searches on all dates found in a description. Many descriptions have broad date ranges.

So we suggest you also use multiple filters to help further reduce the number of hits.

Not every item level description has a date; therefore the series dates will inherit down to those items. For a definition of the types of dates that appear in archival descriptions, click on the “dated” hyperlink for this filter.

- Filter by ORGANIZATION(S), PERSON(S) OR TOPICAL SUBJECT(S) for more precise searching:

Similar to library catalogs, you can limit your search to descriptions that have very precise index terms. These index terms are assigned to a description to indicate that the term is significant or the materials have a lot of information relating to the term.

To filter your search using a particular index term, press the lookup button for the appropriate filter. Search by name or topic or use the alphabetical index browse buttons.

Browse the results. Check the box for the name (or topic).

Paste the results into the Advanced Search Screen by pressing the paste SELECTED button or paste ALL.

The results will now appear in the Advanced Search Screen.

When you run the advanced search, it will only retrieve descriptions that include the index terms you are filtering on. This allows for much more precise searching.

Note: Using these filters will search only in the index term section of a description. At this time not all descriptions include index terms. So if you turn up a low result set, you may also search for these terms in the main keyword box. Searching in the main keyword box will search on all the description fields.

- View descriptions organizations and people. The system provides information about the organizations and people who created, donated, contributed to or was a subject of the archival materials being described.

Note: ARC includes broad descriptions of record groups and collections down to more detailed series, file unit and item level descriptions. A record group or collection is a grouping created by NARA that comprises the records of an organization, such as a Government bureau or independent agency, or of an individual. A series is a smaller grouping of materials found within a record group or collection and is basically a filing system. Series level descriptions include smaller aggregates known as file units or single items.
